COMPETITION WINNERS – AND LOSERS!

Millions of people enter competitions every year and 99% never win anything. But what happens to the winners? We talked to two people who had very different experiences.

Jim

I won a weekend for two in Paris. My girlfriend, Naomi, and I went to the airport in a really big limousine. We travelled first class and we had champagne on the plane. Then we stayed in a very expensive hotel near the River Seine. The weather was quite hot all weekend and the food and wine were really good. On Saturday morning we wanted to go up the Eiffel Tower but the queues were too long, so we had coffee by the river. In the afternoon we went to the Louvre Museum. It was quite crowded but we thought it was really interesting. Then on Sunday I asked Naomi to marry me – and she said yes! It was a wonderful weekend in a beautiful city.

Sandra

I won a weekend for two in Scotland. I was really happy because I love Scotland. I went with my boyfriend, Logan. The hotel was nearly empty and now I know why! It was a really cheap, ugly place – the restaurant was very dirty and the rooms were too small. On Saturday the weather was really bad and we didn't go out because it was too cold. It was a really boring day and then in the evening Logan and I had a fight. I went to bed quite early and he stayed and talked to the receptionist for hours. She was very young and friendly – too friendly! On Sunday my boyfriend left me and went away with her. Yes, it was a terrible weekend!

Review Past Simple: positive and Wh- questions

The book You Only Live Twice by Ian Fleming tells us that James Bond was born in Scotland in 1924, and he didn't have any brothers or sisters. When he was eleven, his parents died in a climbing accident in Switzerland, so he went to live in England with his aunt. When he was twelve he went to Eton, a famous private school, but he didn't like it there. He left after only one year and went to Fettes, his father's old school. James wasn't a good student and he didn't study very much, but he was very good at sports.

You can also visit Mexicana and go on the amazing Runaway Train ride – it's really scary! Then why not have lunch in the excellent Mexican restaurant nearby?

And in Animal Land you can meet a family of gorillas and see some beautiful big cats, including a pair of Sumatran tigers (there are only 400 left in the wild).

Chessington World of Adventures is open every day from April to October from 10.00 a.m. – 7.00 p.m.

Dear Aunt Ellen and Uncle Jeff

Thanks very much for the invitation to cousin Oliver and Becky's wedding. Of course I'd love to come. I'm on holiday then, so I can stay in Canada for three weeks. Actually, I booked my flight yesterday and I arrive the day before the wedding. Can I stay with you when I arrive? If that's not possible, don't worry. I can stay in a hotel. Also, do you know where I can rent a motorbike after the wedding? If not, I can rent a car. See you soon.

Phil

PS How do I get to your place from the airport?

Dear Phil

We're really pleased you can come to the wedding. I'm afraid you can't stay with us for the first week, because Becky's parents are with us then. If you want, I can book a hotel room for you nearby and then you can stay with us for the rest of your holiday after they leave. And yes, you can rent motorbikes. Shall I send you a list of companies and then you can email them?

It's easy to get to our place. You can get a taxi from the airport or you can get a bus to Yonge and Spadina. Our apartment is 2 minutes from the bus stop. Let me know the time of your flight. We can book a table at our favourite restaurant that evening with Becky and her family.

See you in June!

Lots of love

Aunt Ellen

PS Uncle Jeff has some work in England soon and we want to rent an apartment in north London. Can you check prices for us? Thanks.

Review Present Simple questions

TOP TIPS FOR A HEALTHY HEART!

Heart disease kills more people in Britain than any other disease, including cancer. One adult dies every three minutes from heart disease and it's more common in men than women. Age is also important. 80% of people who die of heart attacks are 65 or older. And it's an amazing fact that five times more men die of heart disease in the UK than in Japan. But there are many things you can do to help your heart stay healthy. Here are our top tips for a healthy heart!

- Stop smoking. Everyone knows that cigarettes give you cancer, but they're also very bad for your heart. If you only do one thing to help your heart, do this!

- Do more exercise. Regular exercise (four times a week for 30 minutes) is very good for your heart.

- Don't eat a lot of fried food and only eat red meat once a week. This type of food is bad for your heart because it's high in fat.
- Eat fish twice or three times a week. It's good for your heart because it's low in fat and high in Omega-3 oils.

- Don't eat a lot of salt. We only need about 1g of salt a day – most people eat about 6g!
- Eat more fruit and vegetables (at least five portions a day).
- Lose some weight. Overweight people have more heart attacks!
- Don't drink a lot of alcohol – but a glass of red wine every day can be good for your heart.

Help with Grammar Imperatives

- 3 a) We often use imperatives to give very strong advice. Look at these sentences and answer the questions.

Stop smoking. Don't eat a lot of salt.

- Is the positive imperative the same as the infinitive?
- How do we make the negative imperative?

b) Check in G10.1 p143.

- 4 a) Write five tips on how to get fit. Use positive and negative imperatives.

Walk to work/school.

Don't sit and watch TV every night.

b) Work in groups of three. Compare sentences and choose your top five tips. Tell the class what they are.

- 5 a) Look at the frequency expressions in bold in the article. Then fill in the gaps.

- do / How often / go / you / to the theatre?
- your brother / does / How often / phone you?
- did / visit / you / your grandfather / How often?

c) Check in V10.2 p142.

- do some exercise
- get very stressed

- When did he stop smoking?
- How often does he drink alcohol?

You shouldn't eat so much red meat.

And you should do more exercise.

- We use should to say something is a good/bad thing to do.
- We use shouldn't to say something is a good/bad thing to do.
- After should and shouldn't we use the infinitive/infinitive with to.

- c) Work in pairs. Check your answers.

- 3 Work in groups. Discuss these questions.

- Do you feel depressed in winter? Why?/Why not?
- What activities do you usually do in winter?
- Which is your favourite season? Why?

If you're SAD, see the light!

Many people feel depressed in winter – and now scientists think they know why.

In the 1970s, an American engineer called Herb Kern noticed that in spring and summer he was happy and had a lot of energy, but every winter he became depressed and lazy. He thought it was because there wasn't much daylight in the winter and asked some scientists to make a 'light box'. He put the box on his desk and after a few days he felt a lot better. In 1982 the scientists gave his illness a name – Seasonal Affective Disorder, or SAD.

In the USA about 6–20% of people have SAD and it is common in other countries like the UK and Sweden. People get SAD in autumn and winter, when the days are shorter and there is less daylight. It is more common in women than in men. People with SAD usually sleep a lot and feel tired all the time.

They also eat a lot of sweet food and feel depressed. The answer is bright light. People with SAD should use a light box for half an hour a day. Or you can go on holiday to a sunny country, of course!

Time for a change!

THEY SAY that the grass is always greener on the other side of the fence. But can moving house really solve your problems?

We asked two people from different parts of the UK why they decided to try a new way of life.

Matthew Lane and his family

Matthew Lane

We're going to sell our house in the city and move to a beautiful village in the mountains – I've got a job as a National Park manager there.

We want an easier life and I want to spend more time with my family. I really enjoy spending time with my children, but I only see them on Sundays at the moment. I work six days a week because you need a lot of money to live in a city – everything's very expensive here. But the kids aren't very happy about moving. They love living in the city, but my wife and I think the country is safer for them. Of course, teenagers like going out on their own, but it can be quite dangerous around here, especially at night.

Stuart Reed

Stuart Reed

I moved to the city because I needed to get a job. There were no jobs for me in the country, but when I moved here I found one in the first week.

People say it's more expensive in the city, but you don't need a car here and cars are very expensive. I live in an old part of the city and I can walk to work or go by tube. So I think generally the cost of living is about the same. But I'd like to go back to the country one day. Sometimes I hate living here – it's dirty, crowded and really noisy at night. When I'm old, I'd love to have a little place somewhere by the sea where it's really quiet.

He went to live with his mother in 1964, on the same day that Ian Fleming died. A week later he went to see Goldfinger – a James Bond film. It was the first film he saw in his life.

⁴Pierce left school when he was fifteen and then he went to drama school. In 1978 ⁵he met actress Cassandra Harris at a party. Cassandra was a Bond Girl in the film For Your Eyes Only. ⁶They got married in 1979 and they had a son. Sadly, ⁷Cassandra died in 1993.

A week later he went to see Goldfinger – a James Bond film. It was the first film he saw in his life.

Pierce left school when he was fifteen and then ⁴he went to university. In 1978 he met actress Cassandra Harris at a party. ⁵Cassandra was a Bond Girl in the film For Your Eyes Only. They got married in 1980 and ⁶they had a son. Sadly, Cassandra died in 1991.

⁷Brosnan became James Bond in 1994 and his first Bond film was Goldeneye. ⁸It made $350 million. Pierce Brosnan was definitely born to be Bond.

G9.3 Present Simple or Present Continuous? 9B 6 p73

- We use the Present Simple to talk about things that happen every day/week/month, etc.
- We use the Present Continuous to talk about things happening now.
- We use am, are and is in Present Continuous questions (see G9.2).

I visit my grandparents every month.
- We usually use the Present Continuous with these words: now, today, at the moment.

Beautiful is usually for women. Good-looking is usually for men.

Grammar

G10.1 Imperatives 10A 3 p79

- We often use imperatives to give very strong advice.
- The positive imperative is the same as the infinitive (go, do, etc.): Stop smoking. Do more exercise.
- The negative imperative is don't + infinitive (don't go, don't do, etc.): Don't eat a lot of salt.

TIP! • We also use imperatives to give orders: Go home! and instructions: Don't write anything.

G10.2 should/shouldn't 10A 6 p79

- We use should/shouldn't to give advice.
- We use should to say something is a good thing to do: You should do more exercise.
- We use shouldn't to say something is a bad thing to do: You shouldn't eat so much red meat.
- After should and shouldn't we use the infinitive: He should stop smoking. not He should to stop smoking.

TIPS! • To ask for advice, we can say: What should I do?

• In spoken English, should/shouldn't is more common than the imperative for advice.

G10.3 Questions with like 10B 10 p81

- We use What's (= What is) he/she like? to ask for a general description. We often ask this when we don't know the person. The answer can include character and physical appearance: She's really friendly and outgoing. And she's very beautiful.
- We use What does he/she look like? to ask about physical appearance only: She's tall and slim, and she's got long dark hair.
- We use What does he/she like doing? to ask about people's likes and free time interests: She likes dancing and going to restaurants.

TIPS! • How is he/she? asks about health, not personality: How's Buffy? She's fine, thanks.

• We don't use like in answers to questions with What's he like? He's kind. not He's like kind. and What does she look like? She's very tall. not She's like very tall.

Real World

RW10.1 Talking about health 10C 5 p83

Are you OK?	That's a shame.	You should (tāke the dāy ɒf).
What's wrong?	I hope you get better soon.	Drink lots of water.
What's the matter?

TIPS! • Only use the imperative to give advice to people you know well: Go home and go to bed!

• After Why don't you ...? we use the infinitive: Why don't you see a doctor?

V11.2 Studying 11B 1 p88

V11.3 Verb patterns 11D 5 p93

- After some verbs only one verb form is possible:

I want to spend more time with my family.

They love living in the city.

+ infinitive with to want (to do)

need (to do)
would like (to do)
would love (to do)

+ verb+ing

love (doing) hate (doing)
enjoy (doing)
like (doing)

TIP! • We get a degree when we finish university. A qualification is more general: we get a qualification when we pass any official exam, for example, when you leave school, finish a training course, etc.

TIPS! • These verbs can also be followed by nouns or pronouns:
You don't need a car. (noun) He hates it. (pronoun)

• It is also possible to use the infinitive with to after like, love and hate, but verb+ing is more common in British English.

Grammar

G11.1 be going to: positive and negative 11A p86

I'm going to do a computer course.

I'm not going to eat sweet things anymore.

- These sentences talk about the future.
- The people decided to do these things before they said them.
- We use be going to + infinitive for future plans.

subject	auxiliary (+ not)	going to	infinitive
I	'm/'m not	going to	work
You/We/They	're/aren't	going to	have
He/She/It	's/isn't	going to	lose
We	're	going to	get
Val	's	going to	stop
I	'm	going to	do
I	'm not	going to	eat

G11.2 be going to: Wh- questions 11A p87

question word	auxiliary	subject	going to	infinitive
What	am	I	going to	do?

				all day?

G11.3 might or be going to 11B p89

- We use be going to to say a future plan is decided: I'm going to meet Tony in town.
- We use might to say something in the future is possible, but not decided: I might go for a drink with Peter or I might go to Jane's party.
- After might we use the infinitive: We might go and see a film.

TIPS! • might is the same for all subjects (I, you, he, they, etc.).

• To make questions with might, we usually use Do you think ... ?: Do you think he might come to the party?

Language Summary 12

Vocabulary

V12.1 Big and small numbers 12A p94

- For numbers with a decimal point(.) we say point:
0.6 = nought point six or zero point six
3.25 = three point two five

TIPS! • 0 = nought /nɔ:t/ or zero (or oh when we say phone numbers).

- In English we write 7.5 not 7,5. We use a decimal point (.) not a comma (,).

- We can use one or a with hundred, thousand and million:

100 = a hundred or one hundred

1,000 = a thousand or one thousand /'θaʊzənd/

1,000,000 = a million or one million

- For long numbers we use and after hundred (but not after thousand or million):

156 = a hundred and fifty-six

650,000 = six hundred and fifty thousand

But 2,300 = two thousand, three hundred not two thousand and three hundred

- We don't add a plural -s to hundred, thousand and million:

45,270 = forty-five thousand, two hundred and seventy

70,000,000 = seventy million not seventy millions

But we can say: There were hundreds of people there.

Grammar

G12.1 Superlatives 12A p95

- We use superlatives to compare three or more things.
- We use comparatives (bigger, more expensive, etc.) to compare two things (see G8.2).

type of adjective	spelling rule	superlative
most 1-syllable adjectives	add -est	longest fastest but! dry → driest
1-syllable adjectives ending in -e	add -st	safest nicest
1-syllable adjectives ending in consonant + vowel + consonant	double the last consonant and add -est	wettest biggest but! new → newest
2-syllable adjectives ending in -y	-y → -i and add -est	earliest happiest
2-syllable adjectives not ending in -y	put most before the adjective	most boring most common adjectives with 3 syllables or more	put most before the adjective	most expensive most interesting irregular adjectives	good bad far	best worst furthest/farthest

TIPS! • We say: The best place in the world. not of the world or for the world.

- Before superlatives in sentences we use:

the

Mount Wai'ale'ale is probably the wettest place in the world.

The best bottle of wine cost £12,300.

possessive's

It was the world's most expensive meal.

He's my sister's oldest relative.

possessive adjectives

Mat's my best friend.

It was his most important book.

- the + superlative is the most common form.

Grammar

G12.2 Present Perfect: positive and negative 12B 3 p96

- We use the Present Perfect to talk about experiences in life until now. We don't say when they happened: I've been to about forty countries. I've stayed in some of the world's best hotels.
- We use the Past Simple if we say when something happened: Two weeks ago I went to Mexico. Last month I spent five days in Barbados.

TIP! • We can't use the Present Perfect if we say a time: I went to England in 2003. not I've been to England in 2003.

subject	auxiliary	past participle
I/You/We/They	've (= have)	had met	lots of other jobs.
He/She/It	's (= has)	been	some interesting people.
			to Mexico.

NEGATIVE

subject	auxiliary + not	past participle
I/You/We/They	haven't (= have not)	had	a holiday.
He/She/It	hasn't (= has not)	been	to the USA before.

TIP! • We often make negative Present Perfect sentences with never: I've never been to Australia.

PAST PARTICLES

- For regular verbs, add -ed or -d to the infinitive: work → worked, live → lived, etc. The Past Simple and past participles of regular verbs are the same (see G6.3).
- For irregular verbs, there are no rules. Look at the past participles in the Irregular Verb List, p159.

TIP! • go has two past participles, been and gone. When we use the Present Perfect to talk about experience we usually use been: I've been to Italy. (I am back in my country now.)

G12.3 Present Perfect: Have you ever ... ? questions and short answers 12B 7 p97

- We use the Present Perfect to ask about people's experiences. If the answer is yes, we use the Past Simple to ask for (or give) more information:

Have you ever been to Australia? Yes, I have.

Did you have a good time? Yes, I did.

QUESTIONS

auxiliary	subject	(ever)	past participle
Have	I/you/we/they	ever	worked	in a restaurant?
Has	he/she/it	ever	been	to the UK?

SHORT ANSWERS

Yes, I/you/we/they have. No, I/you/we/they haven't.
Yes, he/she/it has. No, he/she/it hasn't.

TIP! • ever + Present Perfect = any time in your life until now. We often use it in questions.

NEWSREADER Over a hundred people died in a plane crash in China last night. The plane was on its way to Thailand but crashed only minutes after it left the airport.

Terry and Carla Ellis, who want to become the first British husband and wife to climb Mount Everest, are missing, only three days after they started their climb. Helicopters are now looking for the two climbers.

In India there are floods in many parts of the country, after five days of heavy rain. Yesterday thirty-two people died in floods near Calcutta.

And finally, supermarket manager Joe Hall won over thirteen million pounds in last night's lottery – thanks to his dog! Joe told reporters today that his dog, Max, chose the numbers! That's the news this Thursday lunchtime.

And now over to Wendy Simmons for the travel news.

- 2
- A Have you got family in India?
- B Yes, why?
- A Did you hear about the floods?

- J Can /kən/ you help me?
- R Sure, what's the problem?
- J I want to go to the USA on holiday, but I can't /kɑːnt/ decide where to go – any ideas?
- R Well, how about San Francisco? We went there last year and had a great time.
- J That's an idea. What can /kən/ you do there?
- R Well, there's Golden Gate Bridge of course, and Golden Gate Park. It's a really big park – you can /kən/ go for long walks or just relax in the Japanese Tea Garden. It's beautiful there.
- J Uh-huh.
- R And there are the cable cars – they're really good. You can /kən/ go by cable car to a place called Nob Hill, where you can /kən/ see the whole city. Then you can /kən/ walk to Chinatown, which has lots of good places to eat.
- J Hmm, that sounds good.
- R And there's also a place called Fisherman's Wharf. That's really popular with tourists. There are lots of shops, cafés and street musicians, and some wonderful seafood restaurants. We went there for dinner every night.
- J Right.
- R And from there you can /kən/ go on a boat trip to Alcatraz. You know, the island where the prison is.
- J Oh, I'd like to go there. What a great place to stay!
- R No, you can't /kɑːnt/ stay on the island, there aren't any hotels. You can /kən/ only go for the day. I think I've still got LUKE Well, it's a week in Phuket or a week in Monaco. Where do you want to go, Monica?

MONICA Hmm, it's difficult. Phuket's more beautiful than Bangkok.

- L But maybe Bangkok's more interesting.
M Yes, maybe. But Phuket looks better than Bangkok – look at the photos. It's beautiful!
L Yes, but Bangkok's a fantastic city. There's lots to do there. We can go sightseeing, visit Buddhist temples, go to markets, or go shopping.
M Maybe. But Bangkok's more crowded.
L Well, all capital cities are crowded.
M And the people in Phuket are probably friendlier. They usually are in smaller places.
L But Phuket's more expensive.
M Yes, but I love the beach. I'm happy to spend every day there.
L Yes, but you know I'm not really a beach person. It's boring after a couple of days.
M But you can go for walks, or you can rent a motorbike and go round the island.
L I still think Bangkok's more interesting than Phuket.
M Phuket's probably safer too. Especially at night. And it's quieter. I want to relax, Luke. It's a holiday!
L But we can go to a beach near Bangkok, you know: just for a day or two. And next year we can ...

If we take a holiday

Took some time to celebrate

Just one day out of life

It would be, it would be so nice

If we finally spread the word
We're going to have a celebration
All across the world
In every nation
It's time for the good times
Forget about the bad times, oh yeah
One day to come together
To release the pressure
We need a holiday

And bring back all of those happy days
Put your troubles down
It's time to celebrate
Let love shine
And we will find
A way to come together
Can make things better
We need a holiday

 AMY Hi, Michael. I'm in the centre of the city and the traffic isn't moving at all. Excuse me, sir. What do you think of the strike?
 FIRST MAN Well, I'm not very happy about it. I usually go to work by train, but I'm driving today. And it's taking a very long time.
 A Right. When did you leave home?
 FM About a quarter past 6 – that's 3 hours ago.
 A Wow! How long is your journey, usually?
 FM Er, it's about 40 minutes, that's all.
 A Well, good luck! And here's someone on a bike. Hello, madam, are you going to work?
 WOMAN Yes, I am.
 A Do you cycle to work every day?
 W Yes, I do. It's cheaper than the tube.
 A And how long is your journey, usually?
 W It's about half an hour, but it's taking longer today, of course, because of all the traffic.
 A Thanks. Excuse me, sir. Are you walking to work today?

- SECOND MAN Yes, I am. It's quicker than driving. I think. But I'm getting very tired!
 A And how do you normally get to work?
 SM I take the tube – or sometimes the bus.
 A Do you have a message for the people on strike?
 SM Yes, I do. Go back to work!
 A Well, as you can hear, Michael, many people on their way to work aren't enjoying their journey.
 P Thanks Amy. That was Amy Peters, reporting on today's transport strike.

- DOCTOR Hello, Mr Taylor.
 MR TAYLOR Hello, doctor.
 D Right, is everything OK?
 T Er, I think so.
 D Good. First let's check your weight.
 Over here, please. Mmm.
 T How much do I weigh?
 D 93 kilos.
 T Really?
 D Yes. Do you do much exercise?
 T Er, no, not really. I go swimming about once a month, that's all.
 D And what do you usually eat?
 T I eat a lot of meat and vegetables.
 You know, business lunches – but I sometimes have salad. And, er, we eat a lot of pizzas at home.
 D And do you usually eat red meat, or chicken or fish?

Recording Scripts

- T Oh, I suppose I eat red meat about 4 times a week. And we usually have chicken on Sunday.
- D Do you smoke?
- T No, I don't. I gave up 2 years ago.
- D That's good. And what about alcohol? Do you drink a lot?
- T No, not much.
- D Do you drink every day?
- T Er, yes, but only 1 or 2 beers. And maybe a glass of wine with a meal.
- D Hmm. Well, your diet's not too bad, but you shouldn't eat so much red meat. Have chicken or fish instead, it's better for you. And I'm not sure about all those pizzas!
- T OK.
- D And you should do more exercise, maybe 3 times a week. But you probably know that.
- T Er, yes, I'll try.
- D Right, let's listen to your heart.

R10.3

- TINA OK. Leo. I've got four people for the Break poster. See what you think.
- LEO Right. Where's the first one? Hmm, he's not bad.
- T Yes, I quite like him. He looks friendly, the type of person who buys a lot of chocolate.
- L I can see that!
- T Yes, he's a bit overweight, isn't he? Is that a problem?
- L Er, I'm not sure. Who else have you got?
- T Well, there's him.
- L He's better, maybe. He's tall and good-looking.
- T He's very good-looking – but I don't know about the hair.
- L Yes, you've got a point there. Who's next?
- T What about her?
- L She's nice. Tall, slim, nice hair and very attractive.
- T Yes, she's beautiful – but do we want a beautiful person on this poster? Do beautiful people eat chocolate?
- L Not very often, probably. But everyone wants to be beautiful and eat chocolate! Is that all of them?
- T No, there's one more.
- L She's – well, she's a bit older, isn't she?
- T Yes, but maybe that's good. People her age buy a lot of chocolate. And she's attractive – she looks very friendly and happy, I think.
- L Yes, she does.
- T And people eat chocolate because they want to be happy.
- L Yes, you're right. Well, let's choose.
- T OK. Do we want a man or a woman?

R10.4

- TINA OK. Do we want a man or a woman?
- L I think that we want a woman, not a man.
- T Why's that?
- L Well, women buy more chocolate than men. So they want to see a woman on the poster.
- T Yes, good point.
- L And people know that chocolate makes you fat – but everyone wants to be thin.
- T So we want someone slim.
- L And people always think they're young – so they want to see young people on posters.
- T Which means ...
- L ... Zoë.
- T OK. Zoë. Fine. Shall I ask her to come for a meeting?
- L Yes, good idea. Right, what else do we need to talk about?

R10.5

- TINA Hi, Leo. I hear you've got a new girlfriend.
- LEO Er, yes, I have.
- T What's she like?
- L Well, she's really friendly and outgoing. And she's very beautiful.
- T I see. What does she like doing?
- L Well, she likes dancing and going to restaurants. The same things as me, really.
- T OK. What does she look like?
- L Well, she's tall and slim, and she's got long dark hair.
- T Leo?
- L Yes?
- T What's your new girlfriend's name?
- L It's, er, Zoë. You know, from the poster.

CHORUS
Going to the chapel
And we're going to get married
Going to the chapel
And we're going to get married
Gee, I really love you
And we're going to get married
Going to the chapel of love
Spring is here, the sky is blue
Birds all sing, as if they knew
Today's the day we'll say "I do"
And we'll never be lonely any more
Because we're ...
CHORUS
Bells will ring, the sun will shine
I'll be his and he'll be mine
We'll love until the end of time
And we'll never be lonely any more
Because we're ...
CHORUS
